

effective exercise of its powers and discharge of its functions under this Chapter. Where any members sit singly or where any benches are constituted, such members or bench shall exercise and discharge all the powers and functions of the Tribunal.

(2) The regulations made under this section shall be published in the Official Gazette.

320. (1) If at any stage in any proceeding before the Tribunal it appears to the Tribunal that the proceedings raise a question, as to the interpretation of law, which is of such a nature and of such public importance that, it is expedient to issue notice to the State Government, the Tribunal shall issue notice to that Government, and that Government may, if it thinks fit, appear and the Tribunal shall then hear the State Government before deciding the question.

State Government to be heard in certain cases.

(2) If it appears to the State Government that in its opinion the interpretation of a provision of law in any proceedings before the Tribunal, is of such nature and of such public importance that it is expedient that the State Government be heard before decision of the question, it may apply to the Tribunal in such proceedings to be heard ; and the Tribunal shall not decide the question without hearing the State Government.

321. (1) No appeal shall lie to the State Government against any order passed by the Tribunal in the exercise of its powers of appeal or revision under section 315.

No appeal to State Government and jurisdiction of court barred.

(2) Every order or decision of the Tribunal made or passed by or under this Code shall be final and shall not be questioned in any suit or other legal proceedings.

322. (1) The Tribunal may, either on its own motion or on the application of any party interested, and where the State Government is heard, under section 320 on the application by that Government, review its own decision or order in any case, and pass in reference thereto such order as it thinks just and proper :

Review of orders of Tribunal.

Provided that, no such application made by any party shall be entertained, unless the Tribunal is satisfied that there has been the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which after the exercise of due diligence, was not within the knowledge of such party or could not be produced by him at the time when its decision was made, or that there has been some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, or for any other sufficient reason :

Provided further that, no such decision or order shall be varied or revised, unless notice has been given to the parties interested to appear and be heard in support of such order.

(2) An application for review under sub-section (1) by any party or, as the case may be, by the State Government shall be made within ninety days from the date of the decision or order of the Tribunal :

36 of 1963. Provided that, in computing the period of limitation, the provisions of the Limitation Act, 1963, applicable to applications for review of a judgement or order of a Civil Court, shall, so far as may be, apply to applications for review under this section.

323. All orders passed by the Tribunal shall be executed in the same manner in which similar orders, if passed by the State Government or other competent authority, as the case may be, could have been executed.

Manner of executing orders passed by Tribunal.